

I oppose broadcasters request that the FCC provide legal means to remove the fair use rights of the public.

I understand that broadcasters wish to prevent me the ability to use recording equipment on certain of their broadcasts.

I understand that broadcasters have asked the FCC to use regulatory means to restrict my rights in favor of their rights.

At a minimum, such restriction subjects my legally protected rights to the whims of the broadcaster.

The broadcasters are askeing a Federal Agency to deny the rights of all of The People in order to prevent a potential violation of the rights of a few of The People.

I have committed no violation, but the broadcasters have asked you to remove my rights because I might commit a violation of their rights. This taking of my rights without due process is offensive to me, and, in my opinion, unconstitutional. Refer to the fifth and fourteenth amendments to the US Constitution if this is unclear to you.

This preferential treatment of a small group at the expense of the general public is unconscienable, and, in my opinion, unconstitutional. Refer to the fourteenth amenement to the US Constitution if this is unclear to you.

Therefore I oppose the proposition that the FCC grant authority to broadcasters to regulate the fair use of the public.

Thank you for your time and attention in reading this comment. I trust that the FCC will decide fairly and comply with the applicable law in this matter.
